

Please do allow cell phone useage during flight. If a call is important, they can use the airphone that is provided already. We at least know that that equipment is safe. We also do not need the constant barrage of telephone conversations on the crowded planes, where nerves are already sensitive. Thank you for being reasonable in this issue and not allowing the cell phone issue onboard....